Crossing Borders, the REMCO Twinning (River and Environmental Management Cooperation)

Hannah Ietswaart, Program manager, Velt en Vecht Regional Water Authority
15 March, 2012, Marseille
Afrikan Twinning, along the river Incomati
- Republic of South Africa
- Swaziland
- Mocambique

European, Twinning along the river Vecht
- Northrine Westfalia, BRD
- Lower Saxony, BRD
- The Netherlands
Incomati Vecht
Key lessons from the two twinnings

- Keep it regional
- Just start cooperating
- Pioneers in every country are essential
The Crossing Borders Academy

Creating and managing of cross-border regional alliances between organizations is an inexact art which requires a fair amount of own interpretation.

This site is intended to offer foundation for these own interpretations.

Number of downloads: 104 from 19 countries.

Free Download

A practical handbook

Download here the Crossing Borders handbook as published in 2012. This book offers knowledge, strategies and tools for initiating, managing and creating cooperative processes, taking the effects of state borders