

Workshop on circular economy and water re-use

what solutions and what role in the River Basin Management Plans

EUROPE-INBO 2016

October 19, 2016, Lourdes, France

AGENDA
Timings	Contents	Speaker
13:00 13:15	Registration and Welcome coffee
13:15 14:15	PART I: Introduction
	Welcoming address	Laurent Bergeot, Adour-Garonne Water Agency ONEMA
	Circular economy and re-use, setting the scene and current works at European level	Thomas Petitguyot, European Commission, DG ENV
	The approach in France	Ludovic Hauduroy, French Ministry of Environment, Energy and Sea
	The approach in Spain	Teodoro Estrela, Jucar Hydrographic Confederation

14 :15 16:15	PART II: Separate working sessions (2) Split group A- Theme 1 Split group B- Theme 2
	Working format of each split group
	Introduction (10')	All participants
	Introductory presentations (2*10') Theme 1: re-use *France: A call for proposal on re-use projects at basins level * Italy: Experimental activities on reuse in Puglia region  Theme 2 : circular economy * Spain : Economic issues concerning treated waste water allocation. The case of study of Valencia	Rémi Tournon, Rhone Mediterranean Water Agency Alfieri Pollice, IRSA CNR, Water Research Institute  Enrique Cifres, REMOC
	Group discussions organised around 4 questions (60') Final discussion on what to report back from the work of the group (15')	All participants
16:15 16:30	Coffee break
16:30 17:30	PART III: Conclusion
	Presentations of conclusions of the split groups by the rapporteurs (10') and discussion (5')	Rapporteurs + all participants
	Overall Conclusion	OIEau / ONEMA

Working language will be English.

Outcomes of this workshop will be presented at the EUROPE-INBO Conference on 21 October 2016 during a round-table and within a specific publication of the outcomes in French and English.